BOOKING CONDITIONS 2023

The Contract

- Your contract is with YMCA Fairthorne Group (YMCA).
- By signing the booking form you are guaranteeing that you have the authority of your organisation to do so and are accepting the terms of the booking conditions. This contract shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the English Courts under English law.

The Booking

- A provisional booking will be accepted by telephone, email or letter and held for 14 days only. Provisional bookings made within one month of visit will be held for 48 hours only.
- The booking is confirmed and a contract formed when Fairthorne Manor has received a signed booking form. The confirmed booking will be acknowledged by the production of a deposit invoice (or full invoice if booking is made within 8 weeks of your visit). Deposits are non-refundable for confirmed bookings.
- An invoice for the balance outstanding will be forwarded ten weeks prior to your visit. Payment must be made four weeks before your visit. Unfortunately, unless we receive full payment prior to your visit, we will consider the booking cancelled and cancellation charges will apply.

The Price

- YMCA will do its utmost to ensure the price will remain the same. However, in the event of increased price rises due to, e.g. a significant rise in the minimum wage, or fuel charges, we reserve the right to increase the price.
- YMCA will endeavor to absorb the first part of any such increase but should the rise be in excess of 10% of the quoted cost, the client will have the right to cancel with a full refund.

Liability

- YMCA accepts full responsibility for the acts or omissions of its employees, providing they are acting within the scope of their employment.
- YMCA accepts no responsibility for the acts or omissions of its clients whether negligent or otherwise and shall not be liable for claims made against them, either by other clients or third parties.
- For groups including children, adult leaders agree to act in 'loco parentis' at all times. Where applicable, this responsibility is delegated to YMCA staff e.g. for activity sessions, where children must also accompany children.
- Group leaders are responsible for ensuring high standards of conduct within their group.
- Groups are responsible for the cost of repairs necessitated by any willful damage they may cause.
- YMCA does not accept responsibility for guests' property of any description.
- YMCA reserves the right to request a security deposit agreement prior to accepting the booking. The security deposit will be refunded once the visit is completed and facilities have been assessed for damage.

Changes

For operational reasons YMCA reserves the right to make changes to the booking. Most of these will be relatively minor. However, in the event of a major change, you will have the opportunity to either change the visit date (subject to availability) or cancel the booking with a full refund.
